Saturday Morning. June 14, 1862. Poreigners as Municipal Voters. A few days ago we alluded to the proposition of Mr. Attorney General Cary and Mr. Speaker Helmcken to allow foreigners to vote for municipal officers. On that occasion we showed that neither of those gentlemen were in earnest- heir object being merely to humbug the foreign residents -nothing more. We proved then that such a proposition was diametrically opposed to their antecedents. Further, that the fact of Mr. Cary having drawn the Incorporation Bill without inserting such a clause, and Bill without inserting such a clause, and the additional fact that neither Mr. Cary or Mr. Helmcken moved any amendment to the bill to enfranchise foreigners, but left the voter's clause just as it was drawn, proved beyond the possibility of a doubt that their object was deception—ail conservative notions were to be trampled under foot, with the hope of making a little popularity. But beyond being regarded by the British element as dangerous members, and repudiated by foreigners for attempting deception, these worthy senators effected nathing. Smarring, however, under the well-mented exposure that we administered to them, we find that however, under the well-mented exposure that we administered to them, we find that they shifted their ground on M inday, but with no better effect. After the bill had passed through Committee of the Whole—at the heel of the hunt, Mr. Speaker Helmcken comes forward with a projection to allow foreigners to vote for municipal officers. Had the honorable gentlemen carried the proposition, how he would have plumed himself with the achievement! How he would have suickered in his sleeve! There was no danger in doing such a thing in the Lower House when it could be stopped in the Upper. Thus—the Upper House behind closed doors could take all the blame, whilst the Speaker would demurely say: hind closed doors could take all the blame, whilst the Speaker would demurely say: "Well, gentlemen, I have done my best for you. I'm not to blame—it's all the fault of the Council." After which he could congutulate himself as to how finely he had worked the problem! He could have said to himself or fellow-conspirators, "Well! in August, '59, when I discussed in the old Assembly. Gen. Harney's descent on San Assembly, Gen. Harney's descent on San Juan Island, I said that instead of the Home Government sending out Capt Rich-Home Government sending out Capt Richards to survey the boundary line with the American Commissioner, Mr. Campbell, it ought to have sent out dollars. The Americans love the almighty dollar, and would sell their country for dolars. Now, I have made them believe that I am willing to give my own country to them for nothing, without even an oath of allegiance. They believe it. Capital! is it not?" Such would have been the soliloquy of Speaker Helincken. Fortunately the project miscarried. But if it did, it gained two noted converts to humbuggery—Messrs Tolmie & Barnaby—whilst it lost one, Mr. Cary. First and foremost Mr. Barnaby "believed that foreigners might vote with considiered that foreigners might vote with consid-Cary. First and foremost Mr. Burnaby be-lieved that foreigners might vote with consid-erable benefit to the town." Is not this paying a pretty compliment to the British population? It is equivalent to saying that foreigners understand the working of our in-scitutions better than we do ourselves! scitutions bester than we do ourselves Such is Mr. Burnaby's opinion! Let it be corded, and taken out and aired occasionally in order to prove that a few persons who nave lost the confidence of their countrymen vill resort to any low expedient ter away their birthright for popularity sake. But Mr. Folmie caps the climax. He said: "It might be considered strange that we offered foreigness the right of frauchise when offered foreigness the right of franchise when they did not desire it.' No wonder it is strange. The whole antecedents of the Doctor's party give a flat denial to the offer. Who would suppose that the Doctor would be guilty of such an act of generosity? But he knew it would cost nothing. Words are cheap. Then they, the foreigners, did not destre it, he says. Now suppose an outland-out lea-totaller were asked by a brandy-dinker to take a brandy cocktail knowing that the tea-totaller would refuse, what credit there ever a government kept in ex We now know who are British in soment, and who are no; who are liband who are not; who are sale men to trust our privileges with, and who are not; who are sale men to trust our privileges with, and who are not; who are willing to barier away their rights for popularity sake, and who are not. Out of the demagogists and homburgery of the quartette of obstructive state-men, let the public extract a lesson but let them not further extract a lesson forget the men who guarded British insulu-tions. Foster, Trimble. Harris,—and even Franklin, who has usually leaned so affection ately towards "the powers that be." The best of all was the opposition of Dr. Frimble. He said "the measure meant buncombe—the purest kind of buncombe—its supporters teer not sincerr—it was a humble measure never heard of anywhere else." So much truth in so lew words has seldom been heard our Assembly. Such a bumbled burstin our Assembly. Such a bombshell burst-ing among the enemy did its work effectual-ly. Dr. Tolmie, wounded by the explosion, stied to call his colleague to order. But the death-blow was dealt. The only disortried to call his colleague to order. But the death-blow was dealt. The only disorder was in his own ranks, who were demoralized before they were defeated. Mr. Harris land down the true principle—naturalization. Let the naturalization law be made as liberal as you please—a day, a month, a year's probation, but I t naturalization be a condition precedent to voting and believe office.

Arrival of the "Rebecca."

The schooner Rebecca, Capt. McAlmond, arrived last night from Stickeen River in eleven Walsh, who has been 150 miles up the river. She called at the copper mine near Queen Charlotte's and brought down twelve of the miners and fifteen tons of copper ore. There are six men left on the claim.

Mr. Walsh gives us the following statement:
When he ascended the river about 150 miles, it had risen ten feet and had overflown nearly all the low water bars. Some parties worked on the river with varying success. He and I is partner worked three days, making $50. Other parties made from $1.50 to $9 per day until the water drove them out. This was at Buck s Bar, 150 miles up, where he worked last fall. Below that, on several bars, dirt was found which would pay from $4 to $6, in the opinion of prospectors.

This was at Buck s. Bar, 150 miles up, where ne worked last fall. Below that, on several burs, dirt was found which would pay from $4 to $6, in the opinion of prospectors.

The Indians say the river will not fall for six weeka from the first of Jine. Fourteen returned to the Bentinck Aim; having been at Cariboo last year, they preferred to waiting until the river fell. There is a cañon 150 miles up the river. Canoes can go no father up. Moit of the men intend packing above the canon, where there is a good trail all through the mountains.

Some prospectors had been 40 miles higher up and reported diggings worth $4 to $6 per day; but the water was too high to admit of working. Choquette started about May 23d to explore the country above the canon is about 40 miles long. There are about 150 miners on the river, all well. A man named Roder, of Stockholm, Sweden, was drowned accidentally about 74 miles up the river above Little Canon. It is navigable as high as Buck's Bar for steamboats. Mr. Walsh states that the pay-dirt is from 31 inches to a foot below the surface, and varies from six inches to an inch in thickness, similar to the Lower Fraser. The Indians are friendly. There is low land along the river, but it is overflown at a very high stage of water. Boating may be safely done. Mr. Walsh assures us that he believes that where he worked he could make, if the river was low, from an ounce to $20 a day. He returns on account of high water and a scarcity of provisions, and advises immigrants to go well supplied. The gold is fine, but heavy and easily saved.

The miners believed, owing to the finding of fine geld, that a second Cariboo would be found. The climate is very mild. Fifty miles from the mouth of the river it rains all summer, above that it is fine weather.

LATER FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA. - The steamer Enterprise arrived at one o'clock yester-day afternoon with half-a-dozen passengers. Fraser River is above high water mark and is still We are indebted to Mr. J F. Glinnon for rising. We are indebted to Mr. J. F. Glinnon for a British Columbian Extra, from which we learn that several pack trains are on their way down for fresh loads, having sold the first eagoes at the Forks of Quesnelle. Cunningham and Co.'s claim took out $15,000 in two days. Urfidder has been offered $12,000 and Bramley $7000 for their claims. Other instances of individual good fortune are narrated in the extra. Bank and flat claims have been struck; proxisions scarce but enough for present demand; mosquitees I are just made their app arance at the mines. Snow in considerable quantity still exists on the mountains of Autler and Snowshoe. Provisions are packed by Indians, who receive therefor from 40 to 55 cents per lb. The above statement is derived from Mr. W. T. Ballou.

"stowaways." A case of the kind came up before him yesterday. It was that of a man who had him yesterday. It was that of a man who had stowed himself away aboard the ship Lady Young on her recent voyage from New Zealand to this port. Three days after leaving port he made his appearance on deck, and refused to work when cridered by the captain. He was accordingly brought to this port and given over to the Police. By way of an evenus for his conduct the accused said he had be one "broke" in New Zealand, and, disgusted with the cannity, had stowed himself away to escape from there. Mr. Pemberton informed the accused that he would give him an opportunity to settle with the captain, but if he failed to do so by to-morrow, he would be sent to the chain-gamp.

istrate at Montreat, Canada, for naving acteu who cout a license. The system might be copied on this coast with great advantage. Every engineer should pass a Board of Examiners and receive a license or certificate establishing his merit. There would then be fewer explosions and the public travel in comparative safety—which at present is not always the case.

V. I. IN THE GREAT EXHIBITION .- The Nor folk News thus briefly dismisses our corner in the Great Exhibition: "Vancouver Island has furnished some splendid stags' heads and horns, as well as a most beautiful collection of stuffed birds." "Stags' heads and stuffed birds" and not a word about our specimens of mineral, fossil and ag-ricultural wealth!

IN DISTRESS .- The Bliza Anderson, while on her down trip from New Westminster yesterday afternoon, encountered the schooner Eliza, coalladeh from Nanaimo for Victoria, drifting about near Trial Island, having lost her rudder. The steamer promptly made fast to the distressed ves-sel and towed her safely into this harbor.

PHILANTHROPIC -Mr. Davie, (surgeon) with vo of his sons, and Messrs. King and Clarke, from England, voluntarily repaired to Ogden Point on Wednesday and interred the decaying bodies of about thirty Indians who had died of small pox. The philanthrophists are deserving of every praise.

Tower Down .- The steamer Caledonia, having in tow the schooner Lady of the Lake, arrived from New Westminster early yesterday morning. The "Lady" will be refitted and placed on the berth for Stickeen River

AUCTION SALES .- At 10 o'clock this morning Samuel Price & Co.'s wharf, Mr. McCrea will sell a lot of redwood boards, mackerel, &c. At 11 o'clock, in front of salesroom, he will sell pack-horses, saddle-horses and cart-horses.

FORFEITED HIS RECOGNIZANCE -Jeremiah G. Dennes, arrested on suspicion of robbing George Parker of $60, and liberated on his own recognizance to appear and answer the charge, has clattawaed.

FROM BENTINCK ARM .- By the arrival of the sloop Hamly, Capt. Going, from Bentinek Arm, we have a letter from Mr. Pearson, the well-known coast route guide, dated May 30th, on which day Mr. Pearson and party were preparing to start with his company and 12 Indians for Cariboo. The with his company and 12 Indians for Carlboo. The Indians had agreed to pack the goods, for 14 cents in per pound, to the Fraser. About 20 tons of goods, awaiting the arrival of animals from the Fraser, are reported at the Slide (a dangerous portion of the trail, distant some fifty miles from the had of steam navigation). The interior Indians, it appears, have always paid the coast Indians for the privilege of passing through the latter's territory, and trading within its borders; and now that the coast Indians wish to visit the interior they are refused permission unless they pay a considerable sum of money per head for the privilege. Packing was therefore at a dead-lock; but MeLeod was daily expected to return from the Fraser with animals to take the goods through. The Indians reported no a now on the trail for four weeks past. Men are engaged in building a trail around the Slide, to permit of the passage of animals to and from the head of navigation. The writer is confident of the entire success of the route. Highly Important from Stickeen.

THE PANORAMA .- Mr. Perry last evening un rolled the Panorama of a "Tour in Europe" be fore a large and appreciative audience, at the theatre. Most of the scenes were truthful representations and drew forth many expressions of adsentations and drew forth many expressions of admiration. The views of London, Arctic Region, the fox hunt, Windsor Castle, Greenwich, Dover, and Havre by Moonlight, were particularly fluc. The Eruption of Mount, Etna was a vivid and life-like painting, and the views of Constantinople, Palace of Emperor Alexander, Moscow, St. Petersburg, Part and City of Hamburg, wer all premounced excellent by a gentleman present who years ago feasted his eyes upon the originals. The Panorama is truly a beautiful work of art and is deserving of the hearty support of our citizens. The exhibition will be repeated this evening.

"Lo! THE POOR INDIAN!"-Capt. Shaff, of the schooner Nonpareil, informs us that the Indians recently sent North from here are dying very fast. recently sent North from here are dying very fast. So so on as pustules appear upon an occupant of one of the cannes. he is put ashore; a small piece of muslin, to serve as a tent, is raised over him, a small allowance of bread, fish and water doled out and he is left alone to die. Capt. S. reports seeing many such eases on his trip down, and is opinion that all Indians not vaccinated will die this summer. What were our philanthropists about that they were not up the coast ahead of the disease two months ago, engaged in vaccinating the poor wretches who have since fallen victims. Who among our missionaries will volunteer to save the aborigines from utter extermination.

FROM NEW ZEALAND .- The ship Alice Thorn From New Zealand.—The ship Alice Thorn-the bars before the mouth of the river is clear of ice; so that by wintering there good wages may be made. Such were the facts as Mr. Walsh saw them; but he recommends no one to go, as he wishes them to jurge for themselves. He thinks none of the miners now there will return.

Two Russian steamers had been at the mouth of the river and miners were expected from Sitka.

From New Zealand.—The ship Alice Thorn-dike arrived at Esquimalt last night from Otago, N. Zealand, with 175 passengers, all well. The cabing passengers are Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen, G W. and C W. Blaire. She touched at the Marquese on May 7th, and at Honolulu on the 21th. There was a vessel to leave Melbourne for this port immediately, and the Anne Kimball, from Otago.

Landress Wanted—High Water.—Trutch and Spence, the contractors on the Yale and Lytton route, for want of men, are compelled to hire Chinamen. The wages they pay is $50 per mooth and board. 300 or 400 able boiled men can find immediate employment and wage-paid monthly. The water at Yale was rising rapidly on Tuesday last. PRISCA FIDES.

Government st., Victoria, 12th June, 1862. The "Caterpillar" Nuisance

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST :- In a recent issue you notice the visitation of eaterpillars with which Victorians are now afflicted, while districts more remote, such as Saanich and Lake and the oakremote, such as Saanich and Lake and the oakclad slopes of Salt Spring Island, are almost wholly exempted from their ravages. The cause and the remedy are obvious enough. Moths and butterflies deposit their ergs high in the oak trees in myriads, upon the bark, and protect them ayainst the winter with a glutinous covering, above the reach of man. Nature, however, has provided a remedy in the woodpecker, the robin and the jay;
and the wholesale destruction of these and similar birds, and consumption of them in the restaurants in town, ought at once to be stopped.

If Australia can afford at great expense to import these small birds, surely we can afford to let them live. Ten lines of enactment, such as has been found necessary elsewhere, would meet the case. If this is not done the evil must increase, and the swarms of such destructive insects become incalculable. Assist us with your pen in this behalf, and you will merit and receive the thanks of every farmer and market gardenar within ten miles of town.

The gist of the article is contained in the closing para-ticular at Callons.

gist of the article is contained in the graph, as follows:

Federal America is in a conquering mood. The longer this war leasts the more military and effensive she will become. A man may serve a esmipaign and go back to his shop or his plow, but a man who has been three years a soldier is seldom fit for any other calling and seldom able to forego the idle habits and excitement of a soldier's life. It was some time before the sans-culottes whom Napoleon Benaparte led into Italy were drilled by victory into the faithful imperialist army which placed him and protected him upon the throme It will be some time also before the republican volunteers of to-day become professional soldiers, whose only business is war. Yet, if history has any lessons worth reading, this must happen if the war continues. Should this be so, and should Federal America become a conquering republic, with vassal States and a permanent military organization. Cannada will have to choose whether she will be a rival or a slave. It she would not fall to the intolorable position of being a slave to a democracy, she, also, must have a strong military organization, and perhaps it may not be prudent to put off too long a regular and business-like preparation for the exigency.

Provincial Items

A young man named Keenan, of Milton, Canada, was found guilty at the recent assizes, of the wilful murder of his own mother, and sentenced to be hanged on the 12th June.

Four men were poisoned near Huntingdon, Canada, by drinking bug poison, which they suppresed to be whisky. Two of them shortly died, and but little hopes are entertained of the recovery of the others.

A number of paupers arrived by the Forest City, having been shipped hither by the Boston authorities. They were women, some having husbands in the Federal army, and said that they could not procure any part of their husbands' pay to support them. On the refusal of bonds that they would not become dependent for a living on the public, they were re-shipped on Monday morning by the Emigrant Agent — St. John (N. B.) Globe.

It is reported, were the Emigrant that said here.

It is reported, says the Empire, that gold has been discovered in a small stream on the South Branch of the Oromocto, N.S.

A despatch from St. C (therines, C. W. state that the Welland Canal was opened on the 15th inst., and vessels were moving away.

that the Welland Canal was opened on the 1st inst, and vessels were moving away.

A rumor comes from Montical that the Granedier Guards are to return home in the spring.

About half-past eleven o'clock this forenoon a large crowd lined the wharf, their attention being attracted by a young man engaged in the perilous enterprise of crossing over from St. Lamberts. Sometimes he would entirely disappear from yiew, and every second step he took would either stumbel over the ice, or plunge up to the knees. The spectators were horrified at the risk he ran, but atter a great many harrow escapes he reached this side in sarety, although we and thoroughly exhausted, his face and hands scratched in several places. His name turned out to be McEuroe, and it seemed he had performed the fool-haray enterprise for a wager of ten dollars. The time occupied in crossing was less than an hour.— hontreal Witness, May 14.

FREAKS OF A COLONIAL PARLIAMENT.— The Tasmania Legislature has been pro-rogued under very peculiar circumstances, in consequence of a difficulty between the government and the legislative council. The government and the legislative council. The latter, failing to recognize the duty of a constitutional governor to act by the advice of his responsible ministers (who declined to resign their seats at the bidding of the "colonial peers"), and utterly regardless of the courtesy which, at any rate, was due to Her Majesty's representative, declared themselves adjourned for three months the day before that on which his excellency had notified his intention of coming down to prorogue the session, which, of course, is prorogue the session, which, of course, is done in the legislative council chamber. The government, so far baffled, of course had to effect their object by proclamation in the Gozette.—Australian and New Zealand

A New Trick -The Gironde, of Bor-deaux, states that a respectable tradesman deaux, states that a respection transsman of that city was cheated last week by the following trick. He had set a looking-glass outside the shop door for sale, when a fashionably dressed man stopped to look at himself in it. As he stood thus occupied, with his walking-stick under his arm, a person passing behind came in contact with person passing behind came in contact with the stick, and drove it with such violence against the glass as to shiver it to atoms. The apparently innocent cause of this accident immediately offered to pay the value of the glass, worth 500f., handed the tradesman a 1000f. note. After receiving the change he took his departure, and soon afterwards the tradesman made the unpleasant discovery that the note was a forged one.

A Mere Triple.—Capt. Rodman, having successfully cast a 20-inch gun, and the test showing it to be safe and strong as a smaller showing it to be safe and strong as a smaller cannon, is now at work on a pocket piece for the 'President, the ball of which is to weigh 3,000 pounds, to have a range of six or seven miles, of two feet and a half diameter, while the gun itself will veigh somewhere in the neighborhood of 200 tons. It is supposed if the Warrier, or any other ship, should be struck by one of the pills from this little joker, it would be difficult for the future historian to tell the precise spot where the years was last seen, or at precisely what the vessel was last seen, or at precisely what instant she disappeared from mortal view

A Wise Bishop.—Bishop Potter (Episcopalian) of Philadelphia, has forbidden the Rev. Dr. S. Gregg, of Dublin, from lecturing in that city. The object of Dr. G is to refute Catholicism, but Bishop Potter not wishing ill feeling engendered, especially at this moment, when both Catholics and Protestants are fighting side by side for the Union, has ordered a cessarion of his course.
